Jordan Boyd Leadership Award & Scholarship

Applications are being accepted for the 2018 Jordan Boyd Leadership Awards.

The Jordan Boyd Foundation is accepting applications for the 2018 Jordan Boyd Leadership Awards.

The Jordan Boyd Leadership Award was established in the fall of 2013, following the sudden and tragic death of 16 year-old Jordan Boyd of Bedford during the training camp for the Acadie-Bathurst Titan of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League.

It is hoped that these awards will assist successful applicants realize their academic goals as they move towards the next exciting chapter of their lives. Jordan's family also receives some comfort knowing that Jordan continues to positively impact the community.

The Jordan Boyd Leadership Award, in the form of post-secondary entrance scholarships, recognizes individuals in amateur hockey who have demonstrated a passion for sportsmanship, learning, leadership and community. Students who have participated in minor hockey through local hockey associations, including high school, and Hockey Nova Scotia programs are eligible to apply. Each scholarship consists of a one-time cash award of $2,000 to be used for post-secondary tuition. Since 2014, $34,000 in Scholarships have been awarded to students from across Nova Scotia. Applications forms and how to apply for a Jordan Boyd Leadership Award can be found at jordanboyd.ca - Scholarships.

The Jordan Boyd Leadership Award is managed by the Jordan Boyd Foundation, consisting of volunteer Directors. For more information please visit jordanboyd.ca.

Applications will be received until April 20, 2018 with winners announced in May of 2018.
