Jordan Boyd Leadership Award & Scholarship

Applications are being accepted for the 2022 Jordan Boyd Leadership Awards.

The Jordan Boyd Foundation is accepting applications for the 2022 Jordan Boyd Leadership Awards.

The Jordan Boyd Leadership Award was established in the fall of 2013, following the sudden and tragic death of 16-year-old Jordan Boyd of Bedford during the training camp for the Acadie-Bathurst Titan of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League.

It is hoped that these awards will assist successful applicants realize their academic goals as they move towards the next exciting chapter of their lives. Jordan's family also receives some comfort knowing that Jordan continues to positively impact the community.

The Jordan Boyd Leadership Award, in the form of post-secondary entrance scholarships, recognizes individuals who have played hockey in the Bedford & District Minor Hockey Association and who have demonstrated a passion for sportsmanship, learning, leadership and community. Application forms and how to apply for a Jordan Boyd Leadership Award can be found at jordanboyd.ca - Scholarships.

The Jordan Boyd Leadership Award is managed by the Jordan Boyd Foundation, consisting of volunteer Directors. For more information, please visit jordanboyd.ca.

Applications will be received until May 6, 2022 with a winner announced in late May of 2022.
